

COC Netherlands and Association for Women's Rights in Development (AWID), Astraea Lesbian Foundation for Justice, Balance, Center for Economic and Social Rights (CESR), Center for Women's Global Leadership at Rutgers University, Development Alternatives With Women for a New Era (DAWN), Diverse Voices and Action for Equality (DIVA), International Planned Parenthood Federation/WHR, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual & Transgender Community Center, and Realizing Sexual and Reproductive Justice (RESURJ) invite you to a panel discussion:

LESBIAN, BI AND TRANS ACTIVISM: CREATIVE STRATEGIES, ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL RIGHTS AND POST 2015

Friday, March 14, 2014

12:30 pm

11th floor, Hardin Room,

Church Center (44th Street and 1st Ave)

Speakers will include:

Carrie Davis - NYC LGBT Community Center, USA

Eugenia Lopez Uribe - Balance, RESURJ, Mexico

Noelene Nabulivou - Diverse Voices And Action For Equality (DIVA), & DAWN Associate, Fiji

Lalaine Viado - Independent activist, Philippines

Cynthia Rothschild - COC Netherlands, USA, moderator

From the North to the South, and from health to housing... this discussion will explore activism, resistance, and economic and social rights and how development and sexuality intersect in our advocacy, in our movements and in our lives.